LarsonAllen Principal Relocates to Orlando to Strengthen Home Care Practice

For Immediate Release

MINNEAPOLIS—December 1, 2008—LarsonAllen, a nationally recognized top 20 CPA firm, is pleased to announce the relocation of Home Care Principal-in-Charge Gregg Hathorne to the Orlando office. Effective January 1, 2009, Hathorne will move from the Charlotte office, where he joined LarsonAllen in 2000, to lead the firm's efforts to expand the health care practice in Florida.

With more than eleven years of experience as a health care auditor and financial consultant, Hathorne specializes in providing audit and reimbursement services to home health agencies, hospices, continuing care retirement communities (CCRCs), nursing homes, and hospitals. He also has extensive third-party reimbursement experience, including the preparation of Medicare and Medicaid cost reports for nursing homes and home health agencies.

"Gregg's move opens a door allowing us to offer our Florida health care clients the same noticeably different experience our clients in other regions enjoy. We are looking forward to serving the Florida health care community," says John Richter, principal-in-charge of health care at LarsonAllen.

Hathorne received his Bachelor of Science degree in finance from the University of South Carolina. He is a certified public accountant in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Florida, is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and South Carolina Association of CPAs, and represents the firm by attending a variety of health care conferences and trade shows each year. Hathorne is a member of the National Association for Home Care and Hospice (NAHC), the Home Care and Hospice Financial Managers Association (HHFMA), the Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA), and is a Certified Healthcare Financial Professional (CHFP).
