News Release

Eric Baltes Receives Accredited Member Designation

For Immediate Release

MINNEAPOLIS—June 8, 2009—Eric Baltes, business valuation manager with LarsonAllen LLP, has earned his Accredited Member (AM) designation from the American Society of Appraisers. Baltes has been a manager of business valuation with LarsonAllen for three years and received the recognition for his training and experience in the business valuation field.

The designation requires passing four rigorous tests, an ethics exam, and possessing two full-time work years in business valuation. Additionally, to earn the designation, one must have peer acceptance of a completed business valuation report that was prepared for a client.

Baltes is a member of The American Society of Appraisers. He received his MBA from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota, and his bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota.
